Archiving Tomorrow 2015

Innovation in Media Production, Preservation & Presentation

Join us on the night before the conference for a screening!

On the evening of Wed 11th March we will be screening the following films:

The Native Hue of Resolution - a special extended edition of the documentary made to celebrate 20 years of Missing Believed Wiped. Directed by Rory Clark, 2013 Farcical Films for Kaleidoscope.

TV Comes to Channel 8 - made for the opening night of Big Centre TV, this film looks at the history of broadcasting in the Midlands. Directed by Tim Disney, 2015, Big Centre Productions.

There will also be a site visit on the 12th March to Big Centre TV Based at The Goldmine Centre; the new local TV channel for Birmingham, the Black Country and Solihull will be on air 16 hours per day. Join us to watch the 5.30pm news being prepared and broadcast live to 2.1 million potential viewers.